

Objectives

- To consider the different job prospects and careers offered at Wellington Zoo
- To find out about the various roles and responsibilities at the Zoo.

What sort of skills and attributes do you think you would need to get a job at Wellington Zoo?

---

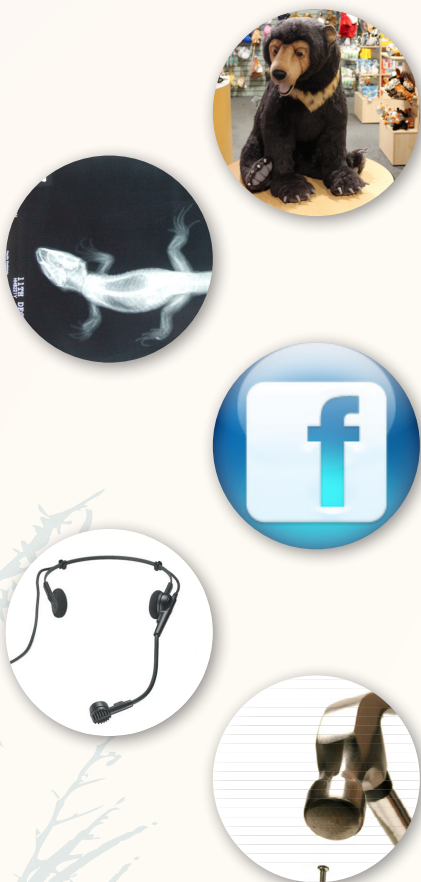

---

---

The Zoo is a unique place to work because it is lively and every day is different!

Most people know that zoos have zoo keepers, but what other jobs are there at Wellington Zoo? Match the Images below with the right job.

- Keeper
- Fundraising
- Vet
- Customer Service and Sales
- Educator
- Property
- Visitor Experience
- Marketing and Communications
- Stores (Animal Kitchens)
- Visitor Ranger

Who am I? Read the descriptions and match to one of the job roles listed below.

*Keeper - Fundraising - Vet - Customer Service and Sales - Educator - Property
Visitor Experience - Marketing and Communications - Stores (Animal Kitchens) - Visitor Ranger*

1. I provide husbandry for some of the Zoo's animals. I feed, train, and do daily health checks on animals. I also pick up a lot of poo!
_____
2. I help our visitors to connect with animals, by giving animal talks and introducing visitors to our awesome contact animals!
_____
3. I build some of the enclosures, and do repairs and maintenance all over the Zoo.
_____
4. I perform small operations, procedures, and health checks on various zoo animals and wildlife.
_____

If you're passionate about animals and the environment, share with your family and friends the Zoo's key conservation messages. An easy one is reduce, reuse, recycle.

To discover whether you'd enjoy a zoo job, visit the Zoo as often as possible; when you turn 18 you can volunteer at the Zoo!